2. Charter

2.1. Purpose

The Committee is established to review and make recommendations to the Board on the following matters:

1. Board Composition and Performance

- a) the appropriate size, composition and diversity of the Board;
- b) the appropriate criteria (necessary and desirable skills and experience) for appointment of directors;
- c) recommendations for the appointment, composition, re-election and removal of directors;
- d) the terms and conditions of appointment to and retirement from the Board;
- e) induction and continuing education programs for non-executive directors;
- f) the evaluation of the Board's performance;
- g) the time non-executive directors are expected to devote to iSelect's affairs and whether directors are meeting that requirement; and
- h) review of Board succession plans.

2. Management Succession

- a) effective induction programs;
- b) guidelines for management development;
- c) review of management succession and development plans; and
- d) to perform any other tasks referred to the Committee by the Board or the chief executive officer.

In making its recommendations, the Committee's objectives are to ensure that:

- iSelect attracts and retains high quality employees, senior management and directors who are able to achieve above average performance;
- the directors possess the necessary and desirable competencies;
- there is development of a process for the evaluation of the performance of the board, its committee and directors; and
- proper regard is paid to the interests of shareholders.

2.2. Membership

The membership of the Committee is made up of members of the Board, a majority of whom are to be independent of management and iSelect (as determined in accordance with the iSelect Board Charter), consisting of:

- a) an independent, non-executive director, who will also be the chair of the Committee, and
- b) at least two other directors.

The chief executive officer may attend by invitation and the Committee may, in addition, seek input from senior management on nomination policies, but no member of senior management should be directly involved in deciding their own nomination.

Members of the Committee will be appointed for an initial three year term with members generally being eligible for re-appointment for so long as they satisfy the criteria set out in (a) above. However, the appointment and removal of Committee members shall be the responsibility of the Board.

Members of the Committee may resign by giving reasonable notice in writing to the chair.

If a Committee member ceases to be a director their appointment as a member of the Committee is automatically terminated with immediate effect.

2.3. Meetings and Resources

The chair of the Committee will convene meetings of the Committee as necessary. The chair of the Committee must call a meeting of the Committee if so requested by any Committee member, or the company secretary.

Notice of every meeting of the Committee must be given to each member's advised address for service of notice (or such other pre-notified interim address where relevant) and the notice must include an agenda of the items to be discussed.

The quorum necessary for a meeting of the Committee shall be two members, of whom at least one must be an independent director.

In the absence of the chair of the Committee, the Committee members must elect one of their number as the chair for that meeting.

The Committee will determine its own procedures.

Minutes of the Committee meetings must be signed by the chair of the Committee and entered into a minute book maintained for that purpose which will be open at all times for inspection by any director.

The Committee may request the People Director to provide any information or carry out any task that may be necessary to enable the Committee properly to carry out its functions and meet its objectives.

The Committee may seek advice from external consultants to enable the Committee to properly carry out its functions and meet its objectives.

The Committee must obtain approval from the chair of the Committee before obtaining advice from external consultants.

2.4. Composition

In searching for and selecting new directors for the Board, the Committee may adopt certain criteria to make recommendations to the Board, including the candidate's background, experience, professional skills, personal qualities, gender, capability of the candidate to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role, potential conflicts of interest and independence and whether their skills and experience will complement the existing Board.

iSelect will consider developing a board skills matrix to identify any 'gaps' in the skills and experience of the directors on the Board, and if thought appropriate, may implement such a matrix/and has adopted that matrix.

The Committee may take into consideration iSelect's Diversity Policy in selecting new directors for the Board.

The Committee has assistance from professional intermediaries to identify and assess the suitability of Board candidates.

The names of candidates submitted for election as directors may be accompanied by the following information to enable shareholders to make an informed decision on their election:

- a) biographical details, including competencies and qualifications and information sufficient to enable an assessment of the independence of the candidate;
- b) a statement by the Board as to whether it supports the nomination of the proposed candidate(s);
- c) details of relationships between:
 - i. the candidate and iSelect; and
 - ii. the candidate and directors of iSelect;
- d) directorships held;
- e) particulars of other positions which involve significant time commitments;
- f) the term of office currently served by any directors subject to re-election; and
- g) any other particulars required by law.

2.5. Reporting

The chair must report the findings and recommendations of the Committee to the Board at the next Board meeting following each meeting of the Committee.

The minutes of all Committee meetings will be circulated to members of the Board by the company secretary.

The annual report to Shareholders may include details of the Committee's processes in searching for and selecting new directors.

The Committee may, at the Board's request, approve:

- a) the details to be published in iSelect's annual report or any other statutory report or document with respect to the activities and responsibilities of the Committee;
- b) the contents and any amendment to iSelect's diversity policy (if one is adopted by the Board).

2.6. Review

The Board may, at least once in each year, review the membership and charter of the Committee to determine their adequacy for current circumstances and the Committee may make recommendations to the Board in relation to the Committee's membership responsibilities, functions and otherwise.
