Resignation of non-executive director

iSelect Limited (ASX:ISU) today announced the resignation of Mr Pat O'Sullivan as non-executive director of iSelect.

Pat joined the iSelect board as ninemsn's nominee director in September 2010 when that entity was still a significant shareholder in iSelect. Pat became an independent director when iSelect listed on the ASX.

Commenting on his departure, Mr O'Sullivan said, "Having now seen iSelect through its prospectus period and having assisted in the appointment of the new CEO, I believe it is the right time to move on so I can focus on my other business and charitable interests. I remain very optimistic about iSelect's future growth prospects and wish the Board and management all the best for the years ahead."

iSelect Executive Chairman, Damien Waller said, "The Board and I thank Pat for his hard work and support over the last three and a half years. He contributed a great deal to iSelect during his tenure and we wish him well for all future endeavours. Our search and selection process for a replacement is well-progressed and we will announce a new Board appointment in due course."
