1 Introduction

- (a) The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) prohibits the trading in shares, options, debentures (including convertible notes) and other securities (securities) of a company by any person who is in possession of undisclosed price sensitive information regarding that company. The Corporations Act imposes substantial penalties on persons who breach those provisions.
  - (b) This policy regulates dealings by iSelect Limited's (iSelect) and iSelect's related entities' and outside companies' directors, officers, employees and senior management, including Key Management Personnel, in securities in iSelect about which they acquire Inside Information through their position or dealings with iSelect.

2 Purpose

- (a) The purpose of this policy is to ensure that iSelect Persons:
    - (i) are aware of, and abide by, the legal restrictions on trading securities while in possession of Inside Information;
    - (ii) adhere to high ethical and legal standards in relation to their personal investments in iSelect securities; and
    - (iii) do not have personal investments that conflict with the interests of iSelect and other shareholders in relation to iSelect securities.
  - (b) This policy also seeks to align the interests of iSelect directors and management with iSelect shareholders by prohibiting them from entering into any transaction or arrangement which limits, whether directly or indirectly, the economic risk of any iSelect securities held beneficially (for example, under any iSelect incentive plan) on that iSelect Person's behalf.
  - (c) This policy is not designed to prohibit iSelect Persons from investing in iSelect securities, but does recognise that there may be times when directors, officers or employees cannot or should not invest in iSelect securities. This policy also imposes certain Closed Periods during which trading is prohibited without written consent of iSelect.
