YourPorter powered by iSelect to deliver tailored home moving service

Melbourne, 3 February 2016: Home connections service YourPorter has partnered with leading household comparison website iSelect to offer all home movers increased choice and convenience through a tailored comparison of electricity, gas, broadband internet, car insurance and more.

The partnership with iSelect will now enable Your Porter to provide a free individually tailored comparison and connection services for electricity, gas, internet, car insurance and more to renters and home owners moving house.

Launched more than two years ago, YourPorter was created to save movers the hassle of individually arranging utility connections during what can already be a very stressful time. YourPorter is completely free for movers and covers all major home services: electricity, gas, water, phone, internet and Foxtel.

Tony Zarka, General Manager of Your Porter, said that while convenience remains key for home movers, consumers are also demanding competitive pricing, real choice and additional products.

"This partnership enables YourPorter customers to compare and purchase from iSelect's extensive product range, conveniently matching them with the right product at the right price and arranging connection for them."

YourPorter customers will be able to access iSelect's full range of products including electricity, gas, broadband, health, life, car and home and contents insurance.

Angela Tangas, iSelect Group Executive for Energy & Telco, said that customers moving home often need much more than for their lights to turn on.

"We know that when someone moves home, not only will they need to connect basic services like electricity and gas but they'll also need to transfer or switch broadband internet connection. A change of address means they'll also need to update their car and home and contents insurance policies," Angela said.

"Too often the stress of moving means customers simply don't have time to shop around and find the best deal. The YourPorter and iSelect partnership will give them convenience and comparison in one easy phone call."

Tony Zarka said utility connection services had long struggled to provide customers with extensive product ranges and competitive prices.

"The iSelect partnership gives customers more choice, more options and better prices"

YourPorter remains focused on delivering exceptional customer service via contact strategies, connection timeframes and a service guarantee. Partnering with iSelect further enhances client customer service experience by leveraging iSelect's product knowledge, sophisticated systems and recognised customer service across Australia.
